

Certified Accountant

Our organization

FairJourney Biologics is a world leading CRO on antibody discovery, engineering, characterization and production. It provides services to Big Pharma companies and top biotech's from the U.S., Europe and Japan. Its state-of-the-art facilities are located in Porto, Portugal. For more information, please visit www.fjb.pt.

Company language: English

The role

As an accountant your main tasks and responsibilities are:

- Classification, accounting and posting of accounting documents;
- Analysis of current accounts and account reconciliations;
- Ensure compliance with tax obligations and the quality of financial data;
- Preparation and analysis of monthly and annual reports;
- Ensure the completion of monthly and annual closing tasks;
- Collaborate in the preparation of the annual Budget;
- Monitoring of audits.

Your profile

FairJourney Biologics is seeking a certified accountant, with the following characteristics:

- You have a B.S. or Master degree Accounting, Management, Finance or other relevant field;
- You have a very good command of the English language both written and spoken (mandatory);
- You are Certified Accountant in Portugal (mandatory);
- You have experience in IFRS (International Financial Reporting Standards);
- You have professional experience in similar functions in the areas of Accounting, Taxation, Account Consolidation (mandatory);
- You have international company experience;
- You have experience in an Auditor/Consultant between 2-3 years (desirable, but not mandatory);
- You have strong analytical skills, problem solving, proactivity and dynamism;
- You have a strong ability to work in a team.

Reporting directly to the CFO

We offer

- Permanent position;
- Integration in a highly motivated team;
- Working in an international environment;
- Bonus incentives;
- Career development;

Additional information

You will receive a contract directly with FairJourney Biologics. FairJourney Biologics is located in Porto, Portugal. Your application will be processed by FairJourney Biologics.

Interested?

Applications must be submitted in English, directly through our website, at <http://fjb.pt/job-opportunities/>, until the 10th of April 2020. Please use "Reference 23" for this position.

For more information about this position you can contact us at +351 222 437 510.